SGCNZ Dance Nimble Soles

"You're wearing dancing shoes with nimble soles," remarked Romeo!

Shakespeare Globe Centre New Zealand (SGCNZ), in association with Dance Aotearoa New Zealand (DANZ) and the Hannah Playhouse, is again offering dancers and choreographers the opportunity to create a Shakespeare inspired item in any dance genre and ethnicity. They may be from 3–10 minutes long, for between 2 and 30 dancers and musicians of any age.

The items will be performed at the Hannah Playhouse in Wellington on International Dance Day - Wednesday 29 April.

Music must be original, out of copyright, or from the APRA/Creative Commons/Free Music Archives.

If this is flouted, the Group Manager/Coordinator will be responsible for any fines or outcomes.

It will be possible to, on request, provide contact with some of the previous entrants of our Music Composition Competition to collaborate with them.

Lighting will be general wash with no or minimal set – up to 2 minutes each for set up and strike.

Spoken words may be incorporated, but it is first and foremost a dance work.

Write up to 50 words suitable for the programme to describe how your item was inspired by and reflects the specific Shakespeare play and/or characters you have chosen.

This is not a competition. Up to three items will be chosen to be performed in SGCNZ's National University of Otago Sheilah Winn Shakespeare Festival Showcase on 31 May at the Michael Fowler Centre in Wellington.

Entry $10 per person. Criteria and Registration form attached and will be on SGCNZ and DANZ websites sgcnz.org.nz and danz.org.nz

Registrations close 31 March 2020.
