SGCNZ COPYRIGHT ACT WAIVER

Media (which includes both Photographs and Video) submitted for the Shakespeare Globe Centre New Zealand's digital COVID-19 Regional and National University of Otago Sheilah Winn Shakespeare Festival (SGCNZ UOSWSF) is covered under the Copyright Act 1994. As the creator, you are the owner of that copyright and have the exclusive right to do certain restricted acts in relation to the work. These include:

1. Copying the work
2. Publishing, issuing or selling copies of the work to the public
3. Playing, Showing, or Performing the work in public
4. Making an adaptation of the work and doing any of the above activities in relation to an adaptation
5. Communicating the work to the public
6. Authorizing any other person to do any of the restricted activities listed above.

In signing this form, you confirm that you extend all the above rights to SGCNZ in regards to the media you have submitted. SGCNZ may in turn extend these rights to Glass Gecko Films and Memory of Light. As the contributing school, you confirm that the parents/guardians of those who perform have been notified that media may in turn be used in the manner described herein.

You confirm that performers and contributors to the SGCNZ University of Otago Sheilah Winn Shakespeare Festival are aware and agree that submitted media may be used for commercial or promotional purposes, which includes publication to the internet and our social media sites. Performers and contributors agree that any sponsors and partners of the SGCNZ UOSWSF, who help finance the Festivals and prizes awarded to various of the participants and allied Competition winners, may use images of prize-winners in their promotional and advertising campaigns.

Performers and contributors are not entitled to any payment, participation, contribution, fee or other compensation of any kind in relation to subsequent media use and hereby waive all rights to claim any such compensation or consideration from Shakespeare Globe Centre New Zealand or any third parties authorised by us to use the media.
