SGCNZ COPYRIGHT ACT WAIVER

Media (which includes both Photographs and Video) and Text submitted to Shakespeare Globe Centre New Zealand as part of SGCNZ's 30th Anniversary Celebration is covered under the Copyright Act 1994. As the creator, you are the owner of that copyright and have the exclusive right to do certain restricted acts in relation to the work. These include:

1. Copying the work
2. Publishing, issuing or selling copies of the work to the public
3. Playing, Showing, or Performing the work in public
4. Making an adaptation of the work and doing any of the above activities in relation to an adaptation
5. Communicating the work to the public
6. Authorising any other person to do any of the restricted activities listed above.

In signing this form, you confirm that you extend all the above rights to SGCNZ in regards to the media or text you have submitted. SGCNZ may also extend these rights to Glass Gecko Films and Memory of Light. As the contributor, you confirm that the persons pictured or mentioned in your submission have been notified that this submission may in turn be used in the manner described in herein.

You confirm that contributors to the SGCNZ 30th Anniversary Celebration Submissions are aware and agree that submitted media or text may be used for commercial or promotional purposes, which includes publication to the internet, our social media sites and inclusion in films and publications celebrating the history of SGCNZ. Contributors agree that any sponsors and partners of SGCNZ, who help finance SGCNZ's activities, may use submissions in their promotional and advertising campaigns.

Contributors are not entitled to any payment, participation, contribution, fee or other compensation of any kind in relation to subsequent use of their submission and hereby waive all rights to claim any such compensation or consideration from Shakespeare Globe Centre New Zealand or any third parties authorised by us to use said submission.

Please state any credit, which should accompany any use of the material: _____
