DESIGN BRIEF

- Design a costume for a character from any Shakespeare play
- Designs may be contemporary or period in style – though not separated into different categories
- Sketch your costume design on A3 paper – laminate where possible
- Attach a rationale of approximately 300 words, with accurate spelling describing:
  - ~ for which character the costume is designed
  - ~ why you consider your design is appropriate for the character
  - ~ why you chose your particular style
- Include at least one page on the research and development process of the design
- Also include a draft budget for materials amounting to no more than $200
  - ~ reasons for choices of fabrics and samples of them
  - ~ instructions on how the costume should be constructed
- Remember that this is a costume for a play which will be seen quite close and up to 20m away, depending on the venue
- It needs to be able to be moved in easily and when interacting with other actors on stage
- Be aware that a costume is a guide to establishing the character for the audience
- Consideration must be given to having the other characters costumed empathetically
- Costume sizes – a minimum of size 10; and for a range of heights and physiques
- Entrants must be a Friend of SGCNZ either through their school or individually
