- (i) any other information that you authorise us to collect.

How SGCNZ collects personal information

In this section, we describe how we collect personal information directly from you and, in some cases, from other sources. Generally, we only collect personal information directly from you when you or your child:

- (a) joins SGCNZ in any capacity;
- (b) registers for and uses a programme, or attends a performance / event;
- (c) visits our Website;
- (d) participates in a survey, or a promotion;
- (e) communicates with us, including online.

How SGCNZ uses personal information

We may use your personal information to:

- (a) process your registration and administer your participation or membership;
- (b) administer your activities in regard to your paid or unpaid work for SGCNZ;
- (a) send you invitations to or information about programmes and events, by post or electronic means, including by
- (b) email, phone and text/SMS;
- (c) improve our programmes and events to ensure that they remain relevant and of interest to you. For example, we
- (d) may contact you to request that you respond to questionnaires, evaluations, reports and surveys;
- (e) assist us in investigating your claims, complaints and enquiries; and
- (f) for any other purpose that you authorise.

No-permission

You do not have to provide us, or authorise us to collect, any images or information that we request.

If you want to be excluded, we will advise the videographer and photographer.

You may wish to consider the wider implications of no filming of your scene/s.

With whom SGCNZ shares personal information

Shakespeare's Globe, London

The personal information of those who participate in the SGCNZ Young Shakespeare Company as participants or as tour leaders may be shared with Shakespeare's Globe in London. This personal information is covered by this Privacy Policy and the Privacy Act 2020.

Service providers

In providing and managing our programmes, we contract with other third parties such as tutors and actors to provide services such as lectures and workshops to us and we may disclose relevant personal information to them to enable them to provide those services. We require these service providers to adhere to this Privacy Policy and to the requirements of the Privacy Act.

How SGCNZ stores personal information

Storage of personal information

All the personal information that we collect is held by us on paper records or, if electronic, is held in "the cloud".

The records are securely located at our physical address at 65-69 Abel Smith Street, Level 1, Office 7, Toi Poneke: Arts Centre, Wellington 6147, New Zealand.

Disposal of personal information

SGCNZ does not keep personal information for longer than it is needed. If it is held in paper form it is shredded; if it is electronic it is deleted.

Electronic Security standards

We take reasonable precautions, including complying with generally accepted industry standards, to protect the personal information that we hold.

Access to and correction of your personal information and preferences

You can request access to, and correction of, your personal information at any time by contacting us using the details above. You can also update your personal information, and change your preferences, on our website by signing into your account.

Event Permission

Photographs and Video of performances and general participation in SGCNZ's Events and Activities, may be captured by authorised third parties.

The performers, contributors and participants are aware and agree that such recordings may be used for commercial or promotional purposes, which includes publication to the internet and our social media sites and inclusion in films and publications celebrating the history of SGCNZ.

Performers, contributors and participants agree that any sponsors of SGCNZ who help finance SGCNZ's activities, may use media in their promotional and advertising campaigns. The performers, contributors and participants in these events and activities waive all rights to such recordings, their display, distribution or publication by any means.

Such grant of rights by the performers, contributors and participants shall be permanent and irrevocable, without any geographic or time limits. Performers contributors and participants are not entitled to any payment, participation, contribution, fee or other compensation of any kind in relation to such grant of right and hereby waive all rights to claim any such compensation or consideration from Shakespeare Globe Centre New Zealand or any third parties authorised by us to use the recordings.
